Dear Chad,

Thanks for your email. Given the tight turn, I don't think we'll be able to consider and get back to you before your plans on Monday. Out of an abundance of caution, please go ahead and file under seal. Going forward we'll be happy to work with you to take care anything that needs to be unsealed, redacted, etc.

Best regards,
Ben

Dear Andrew, Benjamin, Chelsea, John, and Raymond,

Our firm represents Lancium, Michael McNamara, and Raymond Cline in the above-captioned matter. We plan to respond to your Complaint on Monday, May 3, 2021. Our response will attach email and text messages between Austin Storms and Michael McNamara, with attachments. See attached copies. If you believe that any portions of these documents should be filed under seal, please identify those portions and explain why you believe they should be filed under seal. If you would like to meet and confer about this, I am happy to discuss.

Thank you in advance for your prompt response.

Regards,
Chad
